

THE LUTHERAN
WORLD
FEDERATION

Department for Planning
and Operations

Office for Human Resources
lutheranworld.org

Open Position in the LWF Communion Office

“Liberated by God’s grace, a communion in Christ living and working together for a just, peaceful, and reconciled world.”

This is the vision statement adopted by the Council of the Lutheran World Federation (LWF) for the LWF strategy 2012 - 2017.

Working for dignity and justice with compassion and commitment, the LWF as a global communion of churches respects diversity, in culture, history, theological understandings, perspectives on moral and ethical questions, and practice of ministry, mission and service, as a richness of God’s creation.

Position:	Secretary for Diakonia and Development Department for Mission and Development
Place of Assignment:	Geneva, Switzerland
Starting Date:	January 2018
Duration of Contract:	Initial contract of 5 years

The main thrust of the program of diakonia and development is to accompany member churches toward sustainability and improved quality of their diaconal and development work. It emphasizes diakonia and development both within churches and with member church diaconal and development organizations.

Assists in capacity building of member churches in their efforts to plan, organize and implement diaconal and development programs. Serves as liaison between diaconal/development actors of the member churches and LWF World Service programs in the respective countries and administers the Lutheran World Federation (LWF) scholarships program.

Required qualifications:

- University degree or equivalent in diakonia or development studies, social studies, administration or other relevant field. Some theological knowledge would be an added advantage.
- Proven international experience in positions involving project/program planning, organizational development, management and administration in the area related to diakonia and development.
- Working knowledge and/or experience in a developing country and first-hand knowledge of LWF member churches or other churches, mission society or related agency within the ecumenical movement.
- Excellent communication and presentation and facilitation skills in workshop/meeting settings.
- Negotiating skills in political, conflictual and diplomatical settings and capacity to influence.
- Excellent written and spoken English. Working knowledge of German and/or French and/or Spanish is desirable.
- Problem-solving skills and empathy. Demonstrated ability to work as a team member.
- Able to establish good working relationships with a variety of people and culturally sensitive.

Candidates for this position require a church endorsement.

Closing date for applications: 31 August 2017

To apply, click on the following link:

<https://lutheranworld.recruiterbox.com/jobs/fk0mkqn>

THE
LUTHERAN
WORLD
FEDERATION

Department for Planning
and Operations

Office for Human Resources
lutheranworld.org

Position Description	Position Title: Secretary for Diakonia and Development
Date: July 2017	Department/Unit: Mission and Development
	Incumbent: Vacant

Direct Supervisor:	Director for Mission and Development
Supervises:	One Program Assistant

Salary
Grade:

Work Time
Work time %	100%
Travel	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> extensive (more than 20 days/year) <input type="checkbox"/> limited (7 – 19 days/year) <input type="checkbox"/> little (less than 7 days/year) <input type="checkbox"/> none

Content of the position
Basic purpose	The main thrust of the program of diakonia and development is to accompany member churches toward sustainability and improved quality of their diaconal and development work. It emphasizes diakonia and development both within churches and with member church diaconal and development organizations. Assists in capacity building of member churches in their efforts to plan, organize and implement diaconal and development programs. Serves as liaison between diaconal/development actors of the member churches and LWF World Service programs in the respective countries and administers the Lutheran World Federation (LWF) scholarships program.
Basic Position Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • University degree or equivalent in diakonia or development studies, social studies, administration or other relevant field. Some theological knowledge would be an added advantage. • Proven international experience in positions involving project/program planning, organizational development, management and administration in the area related to diakonia and development. • Working knowledge and/or experience in a developing country and first-hand knowledge of LWF member churches or other churches, mission society or related agency within the ecumenical movement. • Excellent communication and presentation and facilitation skills in workshop/meeting settings. • Negotiating skills in political, conflictual and diplomatical settings and capacity to influence.
	<input type="checkbox"/> Three or four years of job training apprenticeship) <input type="checkbox"/> Secondary-level high school/technical/commercial school <input type="checkbox"/> Tertiary-level technical/commercial college <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> University

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Excellent written and spoken English. Working knowledge of German and/or French and/or Spanish is desirable. • Problem-solving skills and empathy. • Able to establish good working relationships with a variety of people and culturally sensitive. • Demonstrated the ability to work as a team member. • Working knowledge of Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint.
Additional Study and Experience	Good knowledge of educational and/or capacity development needs in member churches and of study and training possibilities in home or other countries.
Years of Experience	Requirement			Desirable
	<input type="checkbox"/> 0 to 2 years	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 3 to 7 years	<input type="checkbox"/> 8 to 12 years	<input type="checkbox"/> 0 to 2 years	<input type="checkbox"/> 3 to 7 years	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 8 to 12 years
	<input type="checkbox"/> over 13 years			<input type="checkbox"/> over 13 years
Language Knowledge	Requirement			Desirable
	Basic knowledge	Speak and understand	Write and discuss	Basic knowledge	Speak and understand	Write and discuss
English			x
French					x
German					x
Spanish					x
Other :
Experience in Supervision	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> yes <input type="checkbox"/> no
Position Environment and Dimensions	The Lutheran World Federation, Department for Mission and Development (DMD), seeks a comprehensive approach for the accompaniment of member churches in building capacities for holistic mission encompassing proclamation, diakonia and advocacy for justice. This position is in line with the Lutheran World Federation, Department for Mission and Development (LWF/DMD) policies, procedures, program plan and the LWF cross cutting issues. LWF member churches have different needs for capacity building as related to the development of their vocation to diaconal and development services. In order to do so, they need structural, conceptual and administrative systems which facilitate their action. Agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development and Partnership on Religion and Development provide global environment in which LWF and its members need to work. Coordinates/works in close collaboration with: Area Secretaries in the department, other LWF departments (particularly World Service), LWF member churches, funding agencies, educational institutions and ecumenical partner organizations e.g. WCC and ACT Alliance.
Main duties	1. Addresses capacity building needs for diaconal and development actors of the member churches and linking them with the LWF.

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. Administers the Lutheran World Federation (LWF) scholarships and training program for the member churches. 3. Works as focal point and liaison for LWF World Service and member churches where World Service is active in respective countries. Hence, engages with member churches having diakonia entities and develop the relationships between these churches and the Department for World Service. 4. Coordinates the planning, monitoring, evaluation and reporting of the respective program work. 5. Coordinates the budgeting process of the program in collaboration with the Secretary for Planning and Finance, ensures monitoring and reporting of the finances of the program and authorizes all expenses of the program. 6. Supports fundraising efforts in coordination with Planning and Finance. 7. Promotes the communication and the sharing of information about the respective program work. 8. Responds to other emerging issues, which have clear relation with the respective program.
Special duties	As may be assigned by the Director.
Major Challenges The ownership and engagement of member churches and related diakonia and development organizations in the processes is crucial for sustainability and continuity, and should be pursued at all times. A major challenge is the diversity of member churches, different contexts and varied needs. Thus, engaging relevant processes require greatest sensitivity to local contexts, identities, and methodologies that ensure mutuality in the learning processes within the communion. Another challenge is to build bridges of complicated relationships between ecumenical diaconal actors, weak and new diaconal and development actors in many churches, as well as laying theological and structural foundation between diakonia/development and the churches.	